VENTURING RANGER AWARD HUNTING ELECTIVE

Additional checkoff sheets and helps are available from ScouterMom.com.

a. Hunter education and enforcement a-i. Successfully complete a hunter education course offered by your state wildlife/conservation agency a-ii. Learn and explain the requirements to become a volunteer hunter education instructor in your state a-iii. Explain how to report a wildlife-related violation to the appropriate law enforcement agency.
b. Do b(i), b(ii), or b(iii).
b-i. Successfully complete a bowhunter education course offered by your state or the National Bowhunter Education Foundation.
b-ii. Successfully complete a National Muzzle Loading Rifle Association Rifle Basic course b-iii. Participate in a National Rifle Association-International Hunter Education Association Youth Hunter Education Challenge event sponsored by your state.
c. Do c(i), c(ii), or c(iii).
c-i. Assist a certified hunter education instructor with a hunter education course.
c-ii. Either plan or assist in putting on a National Hunting and Fishing Day program.
c-iii. Talk with a game warden/conservation officer about his or her job. If possible, observe/assist at a game check station in your state.
d. Plan and carry out a hunting trip approved by an Advisor.
e. Make a tabletop display or presentation on what you have learned for your crew, another crew, a Cub Scout or Boy Scout unit, or another youth group.
Completed
Presented										