

VENTURING RANGER AWARD OUTDOOR LIVING HISTORY ELECTIVE

Additional requirement sheets and helps are available from ScouterMom.com.

- a. Research a historical culture and time period of interest to you, such as Native American, mountain man, pioneer, or Revolutionary/Civil War.
- b. Write a 2,000-word essay or make an outline describing the culture's dress, food, housing, customs, etc.
- c. Using your research, make an outfit that represents a person or type of person (soldier, farmer, trader, hunter, chief, etc.) from your chosen culture.
- d. Using your research, construct a working tool or weapon out of authentic materials that would have been used by the person you have chosen to represent in requirement (c) above.
- e. Once your clothing and accoutrements are complete, attend and participate in a pow wow, rendezvous, reenactment, historical trek, or other event that includes your chosen culture.
- f. Make a presentation of your chosen culture to your crew, another crew, a Cub Scout or Boy Scout unit, or another group.
- g. Tour.
 - g-i. Organize a group tour to a museum, archaeological dig, or other site of significance to your chosen culture
 - g-iii. After the tour, lead your group in a discussion about what they learned.