

HUNTING FOR DINNER THANKSGIVING SKIT

<https://scoutermom.com/8640/hunting-for-dinner-thanksgiving-skit/>

Props

- Several empty pizza boxes

Players

- 3 to 10 Scouts (can be even more if they join in groups)

The Skit

Scout #1 comes out and walks around quietly like he is hunting for something.
Scout #2 enters.

Scout #2: "What are you doing?"

Scout #1: "I'm hunting so we can have a nice Thanksgiving dinner."

Scout #2: "Can I help?"

Scout #1: "Sure!"

Scout #1 and Scout #2 continue hiking and "stalking" around for something.
Scout #3 enters.

Scout #3: "What's going on?"

Scout #2: "Shhh! Be quiet!" (This is really funny when he makes a lot of noise telling the other guy to be quiet.)

Scout #1: "We're hunting for Thanksgiving dinner."

Scout #3: "Can I join you?"

Scouts #1 and #2: "Yes."

In the same manner, more Scouts can enter, inquire about what is going on, and ask to join. Finally, after all have entered, Scout #1 goes and pulls the pizza boxes from a hidden location.

Scout #1: "I got it!"

The other Scouts can all comment something like "Yum pizza!"