

WILD WEST CHEERS AND APPLAUSES

scoutermom.com

Wild West Cheers

Come and Get It!

This cheer is perfect for getting everyone excited about a meal or snack. To do this cheer, simply yell out “Come and Get It!” and then hold your arms out to the sides as if you’re offering a feast to your fellow scouts.

Wagon Train Cheer

To do this cheer, make a circle with one arm above your head and say, “Head ’em up!” Then, point straight ahead and say, “Move ’em out!”

Westward Ho Cheer

The Cubmaster says “Westward” and the audience answers, “Ho!”

Wild West Applauses

Coyote Applause

To do this applause, lift up your head, as if howling at the moon, and say, “Aw Woo, Aw Woo, Aw Woo, Woo!”

Horse Applause

To do this applause, everyone gallops in place, saying “Clippety clop! Clippety clop!”

Bandanna Applause

To do this applause, simply throw a bandanna into the air and everyone applauds until the bandanna reaches the floor. Then, repeat the process, catching the bandanna at different points during the drop.